COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 3, 1917.

NUMBER 10

The Possibility of Apostasy.

The above heading was the theme for Rev. J. S. Chandler's discourse, last Sunday forenoon, at the Methodist Church, this city. He selected for a text: "If a man thinketh he standeth, let him take heed lest he fall."

From the standpoint of the teachings of the Methodist Church, he presented a wonderfully strong argument, delivered in a most forcible manner. The auditorium and annex were full of friends, of all denominations, who delight to hear Rev. Chandler, who was a popular pastor here for three years. The sermon was delivered in true Christian spirit, the speaker stating that all denominations were agreed upon the essentials, but were not together on the non-essentials. He also preached to a large congregation Sunday night, his subject being: "The Phases of Baptism." Those who differ with Rev. Chandler admire him for his frankness and also for his ability to handle a subject intelligently.

Mill Start.

You will find me at my mill on Water Street, every day to do your grinding and chopping. Bring on your corn.

A Pretty Wedding.

Last Wednesday afternoon a small company of friends assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Upton, near Greenville, to witness the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ruth Upton, to Mr. J. Heber Lewis, of Somerset. The ceremony was beautifully said by Eld. Z. T. Williams. The bride is accomplished and was one of Adair county's best young ladies. The groom is in the hotel business, with his father, at Somerset, and is very popular with his many friends.

Thanks.

Since we shall have no regular service, in which we shall meet the greater part of our church people before we leave for our sojourn in Belton, Texas, we take this method of thanking the ladies of the Christian Church for their purse of more than twenty dollars, which they sent us at the Christmas time. Not only for the amount of the gift, but for the love which prompted the donors, we are sincerely thankful.

Double Wedding.

Eld. C. C. Lloyd officiated at a double wedding the 20th of December, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Peese, who live at Cane Valley. The contracting parties were Mr. Thomas Cave and Miss Mattie S. Peese; Mr. Eugene R. Rice and Miss Rachel N. Peese, the brides being sisters. Quite a number of friends witnessed the solemn ceremony. All the parties are excellent people, and they were the recipients of many presents.

Mr. W. G. McKinley bought from C. S. Harris a registered Duroc, coming two-years-old, that has proven to be one of the best breeders in this section of the country. This hog weighs nearly 400 pounds, in moderate flesh—has the bone, length and form. Will serve at $1.00.

Mrs. P. F. Squires, Milltown, who is an ardent admirer of President Wilson and his administration, reports that during the year of 1916 she sold in chickens eggs and butter $200.98 worth and got the cash for same. Mrs. Squires is 60 years old and looked after her poultry, etc., herself.

The banquet of the pupils and former pupils of the Columbia High School, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Wilson, last Wednesday night, was a very delightful affair. There were many toasts and some very happy and amusing responses.

Mr. E. G. Shaw, a former citizen of this place, was married in Campbells-ville, to Mrs. Bessie Ray Wilkerson, Wednesday evening of last week. The ceremony took place after prayer meeting in the parlors of the Christian church, that city.

Dr. S. P. Millier, the health officer, reports that there are a number of cases of smallpox in the colored settlement, south-west of town, and people are warned to keep away from that locality.

The tone of the allies reply to Germany's peace proposals, indicates that there is no probability of the settlement of hostilities at this time.

Lost.—Pair of eye glasses, in black case. A reward is offered.

Dr. C. M. Russell.

The January term of the Adair circuit court will open Monday week.

Mr. Firkin Announces.

Elsewhere in this issue of the News the announcement of Mr. T. A. Firkin, of the Cane Valley precinct, appears for the office of County Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Republican party, as expressed at the coming August primary.

Mr. Firkin is a gentleman of excellent character, and has been an active business man of Adair county for fifteen or eighteen years. He is a son of Wilson Firkin and was reared in Metcalfe county, his father being a native of Adair. A little less than twenty years ago Mr. Firkin opened a general store at Keltner, this county, where he successfully sold goods and handled tobacco for a number of years. He has been conducting a general store at Cane Valley for about ten years, and is popular with every body with whom he deals. He is well qualified for the office of County Clerk, and there is not a doubt but he would make a painstaking officer should he be elected. He hopes to see all the voters in the county before the primary, and in the meantime he asks that his candidacy be given a favorable consideration.

Much business for the benefit of the craft was transacted at the Kentucky Press Association which met in Louisville last week.

Revised figures on returns of the last election show definitely that neither Democrats nor Republicans will have a majority of the next House, necessary to elect a Speaker, and that a handful of independents will determine which side will control the organization. Conceding seats to candidates in possession of certificates of election, because they are certain to participate in the organization of the House, the personnel now stands: Republicans, 214; Democrats, 213; Independents, 2; Progressives, 2; Prohibitionist, 1; Socialist, 1; contested, 2. A majority is 218, hence should either Democrats or Republicans win both of the contests, they still would be short of a majority.

Complete official returns on the Presidential election show that Mr. Wilson received 9,116,296 votes and Mr. Hughes 8,547,474, a plurality of 668,822 for Mr. Wilson. In 1912 Wilson (Dem.) received 6,297,099; Taft (Rep.), 3,846,399; Roosevelt (Prog) 4-124,989. The vote of Mr. Benson, Socialist candidate for President, was 750,000, with eight missing States estimated, against 901,873 for Debs, Socialist, in 1912, and for Mr. Hanley, Prohibitionist candidate, was 225,101, against 207,928 for Chaffin, Prohibitionist, in 1912. The total popular vote for the four candidates was 18,638,871, as against 15,045,322 in 1912. This is an increase of 3,593,549, accounted for by the increased population and the women vote in the new suffrage States.

Biography.

Comment of a nephew at the funeral of his aunt, Fetna Woodriddle, who was buried at the Bethlehem church, Russell county, Ky., on Dec. 9, 1916.

A little more than eighty years ago there lived a young man and a young woman in Bedford county, Va., who decided to cast their lots together, and were married and after their first baby, Mary Ann, had come into the home, and being young and full of vigor and good health, they decided to seek a home farther west. So they loaded their small store of belongings into a wagon and started out. But before starting on their journey they sought salvation and were converted and joined the Methodist Church.

After a long and hard trip they arrived on the head of Greasy creek, where they made their home and reared their family of six children, the one whose remains lay silent before us, was the youngest of the family. She grew into womanhood, with a beautiful, gentle, loving disposition which attracted the attention of every one about her, and especially of a young man of the neighborhood, Shelly Woodriddle. He was a powerful young man, physically, mentally and spiritually. He stood six feet four inches, a picture of health. He sought this then young woman's hand and won. After five children had come to gladden their home, two of which went to Heaven in infancy, the other three being here, a small pimple came on his under lip which developed into a cancer. You older people present know the result. Just in the bloom of his manhood he was taken, but a few years before his death, he developed one of the most beautiful Christian dispositions I have ever known. He commented on his affliction and the end that he knew was near, as a matter of business. He said here is Martin, the only son, who is large enough to plow and run the farm, and the two little girls are old enough to help their mother, and they can get along without me. During all this time the loving Fetna stood by him and ministered lovingly, patiently and gently to his every need, hardly realizing what it meant to be left a widow with three small children to care for, but uncle Shelly passed away and for 29 years aunt Fetna has held the reins of government in the family and has reared her children, and seen them married and all have families of their own.

Children, she was your mother, your queen, your all, but she has gone away now. You must get along without mother now. Wont you let her beautiful Christian life and character be your ideal? Wont you strive even harder to imitate that beautiful life, just gone out? Our grandfather, John W. Wilkerson, is my ideal. My constant prayer is to be able to imitate his life, and never bring reproach on his good name.

One by one we are being laid in the Wilkerson row in the old cemetery, and we are looking forward to a time when we trust there will be a great reunion of the Wilkerson family and it's descendants just across the river where we will meet grandfather, grandmother, aunt Mary Ann, mother, and aunt Fetna and the others who have gone on before us, there to dwell together throughout the ages of eternity.

Danger Signal.

If the fire bell should ring would you run and stop it or go and help to put out the fire? It is much the same way with a cough. A cough is a danger signal as much as a fire bell. You should no more try to suppress it than to stop a fire bell when it is ringing, but should cure the disease that causes the coughing. This can nearly always be done by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Many have used it with the most beneficial results. It is especially valuable for the persistent cough that so often follows a bad cold or an attack of the grip. Mrs. Thomas Beeching, Andrews, Ind., writes: "During the winter my husband takes cold easily and coughs and coughs. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine for breaking up these attacks and you cannot get him to take any other." Obtainable at Paul Drug Co.

CROCUS.

W. P. Bradshaw has moved to A. A. Miller's farm for the coming year. B. S. Miller sold L. W. Bennett 53 hogs, last Wednesday, for 7 cents.

There is an epidemic among the hogs in this neighborhood, which is killing a great many.

Will Blair, of this place, and Miss Ruth Williams, of the Montpelier country, were married last Sunday.

Mr. L. W. Dixon has just completed a fine well for Leslie Cundiff. If you need a well Mr. Dixon is a good man to deal with.

Bram Thomas is doing an extensive business in this section.

A little girl of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hadley died of diphtheria last week.

Mr. I. F. Andrew has removed to his farm, on Cumberland river, recently purchased from John Morgan.

J. L. Antle, the experienced, saw mill man of this place, is doing a nice business.

B. S. Miller recently installed an Electric Lighting plant in his new home, which adds greatly to their convenience.

Nervous Women.

When the nervousness is caused by constipation, as is often the case, you will get quick relief by taking Chamberlain's Tablets. These tablets also improve the digestion. Obtainable at Paul Drug Co.

St. Bernice, Dec. 15, 1916.

Editor News:

Since leaving Columbia, Ky., Nov. 1st, we have been in Hartford City, at the home of my parents, where we visited for two weeks, when we received a call from Rev. J. E. Shannon, our White River Conference Supt., to come to St. Bernice and take charge of this circuit, U. B. church. We held a two week's meeting at Stumptown, one of our points, where we had good success. We are now at our home in St. Bernice. We live in the five room parsonage, first door East of our church. We always look for The News. As soon as our subscription expires we shall renew. There is a six inch snow on the ground here now and it is getting colder. We live about 1 mile from the coal mine, and only pay $2.25 per ton for coal delivered at our door. We hope you all will have a Merry X-mas and a Happy New Year. We live in Vermillion county, which is dry, but just a mile from here, just over the Vigo county line, there is a saloon. We are only

1 1/2 mile from the Illinois state line. Will close for this time, hoping to see you by next X-Mas

NEW JOY IN LIFE FOR THIS WOMAN

Snatched From Suicide Dread After 15 Years' Agony.

SHATTERED HEALTH MENDED

Mrs. Mattie Powers Leaves Home In Kentucky In Quest of Strength After Almost Giving Up Hope—Finds What She Sought But Not In Way She Expected.

"I thought seriously of committing suicide. Life seemed unbearable. I was just a burden to myself and my children. There seemed nothing ahead of me but years of agony. Death would be welcome.

"I had suffered for fifteen years. Seven different doctors had treated me. None of them held out hope. I had been flat on my back in bed for a year. My son had to turn me over with a sheet. I was helpless.

"Today I can do a full day's housework with ease. I can walk miles without tiring. I suffer no pain and enjoy every minute of life. I eat well, sleep well and have no more nervousness. I was weak and no more than a bag of bones; now I am gaining weight so fast I am outgrowing all of my clothes.

Owes Much to "Tanlac."

"I feel this to be the solemn truth—all of my regained health has been due to Tanlac, the wonderful medicine I had never heard of three weeks ago. I can never express my gratitude. I wish I could get up on the housetops and shout to all the world what this medicine did for me. I have found Tanlac a veritable God's blessing."

Mrs. Mattie Powers, and Her "Tanlac Smile," Acquired After 15 Years of Suffering From Ill Health.

The foregoing remarkable statement was made by Mrs. Mattie A. Powers, who lives at 1804 Superior avenue, Cleveland. It is one of scores of reports of similar extraordinary results secured from the use of Tanlac, the modern stomach tonic and system purifier.

Left Home In Kentucky.

Continuing, Mrs. Powers said: "If I had not experienced it all myself I could not have believed it possible that any medicine could do for me what Tanlac has done. I was forced to leave my old home near Lexington, Kentucky.

Recovery Is Rapid.

"Just three weeks ago I tried Tanlac. Within a very few days I discovered I was sleeping better. I could eat without such terrible pains and my bowels were moving naturally. Color came back into my face and I began to gain in weight. I found I did not tire out when I tried to do housework, and soon it was a pleasure to me. In the first week I gained four pounds. I do not know how much I have gained since then, but I do know that all of my clothes are getting too tight for me.

"I will be only too glad to talk with any one who wants to come and ask me about Tanlac. I feel I never can repay the debt of gratitude I owe to the discoverer of this medicine."

Chronic Catarrh is Curable

Nothing is more distressing to the sufferer and his friends. Chronic catarrh is systemic—that is, it is present throughout the body, though it may manifest itself in a local location. Only a constitutional treatment will overcome systemic catarrh. Local treatment sometimes helps the acute manifestations, but they cannot overcome the systemic disorder.

PERUNA Has Helped Thousands

Peruna has special value in catarrh. It gives vitality to the system, restores tone to the membranes and enables them to perform their functions. In many cases its benefits begin at once, and it rarely fails when treatment is continued properly. The Peruna Medical Department will be glad to assist you to overcome this disease. The doctor's advice is free. Don't delay treatment.
